The largest and most ambitious series of coaching courses ever undertaken in Australia will start on March 18.

Designated as "Operation Snowball", it will spread right across the country areas of western NSW and will mobilise hundreds of coaches and players.

It will be organised by NSW Director of Coaching, Joe Vlasits, for the Western NSW Amateur Association, with made the initial approach, through Doug McCurran (president), Noel Chegwidden (secretary) and Ken Sinciair (treasurer).

"Operation Snowball" will cost about $10,000 and the whole bill will be met by Western NSW clubs, players and some sponsors

Joe Vlasits said this week that he was hoping the idea would be copied in other NSW areas as well as other States of Australia.

"If we don't start doing something positive now, the country areas will never develop. And traditionally, these are soccer's great hintertands," he said.

This is the program March 18-19 Lithgow (20 coaches), Forbes (20 coaches) and Dubbo (40 coaches), all basic

Sutherland must thank John Watkiss and goalkeeper Malcolm Haynes for the 2-1 win and their second consecutive entry into the Ampol Cup

They were sadly handicapped by the absence of four regulers due to injury, in the persons of Peter Hall, Keith Schumann, Steve Meades and Warren Woods, Wätkiss made his mark aftet only six minutes when he set up the first goal for Craig Hall to finish of his he second half he showed all his old guile.

In the second hair he showed an his old grille. At that stage Monarch had the Shire on their collective knees and they were taking a-dreadful battering. Monarch had only themselves to blame for not winning the semi-final as they carved out most of the sooring exportionties. The culprits were Sebastian Giampacio and Mauro Valert, who absolutely fatled to reveal the speed of foot and shot whom they had showed in earlier matches. It took them until the 81st minute to equalise through Tony Monaello, who was transferred during the week from APIA.

Peter Beggs, signed by Sutherland during the week for $2500 from Wollongong City to bolister up their forwards, was rarely seen.

All the signs point to a close fought result in Sunday's Ampol Cup final to be played at Garside Park at 3.30 p.m.

Melita Eagles have an ex-cellent chance of victory — but only if they get out of the slump that was so evident in last Sunday's semifinal at the Sydney Sports Ground.

Sutherland's chances must depend upon a quick recovery by the four players who missed last week due to injury, plus the very sharp defender Peter Wykes, who had to retire last Sunday.

Certainly they badly need Steve Meades back to sharpen up the midfield

Also missing were detenders Warren Woods and Kerth Schumann and creative winger Peter Hall

If John Watkiss can go out and play as he did in the semifinal Sutherland's job will be much Sutherlands job will be much enaiter in fact. Schumann may well be unfit, so Walkins' resolve to stay retired if oircumstances permit must go for nought if his team is to win the Cup. Melita's defence effort is revolving too much around the ability of fair haired young Bobby McPherson, so the need is for his drive to rub off on to the rest of the defence.

Garside Park, 3.30 p.m.

Sutherland's bid to build its attack resulted in the signing of Peter Beggs

He is not a world beater, but he gives 100% effort and has a proven scoring at State League level.

In response to the Item in last week's CLUB PATROL about players 'ignorance' of the rules of soccer, Armolffe Scots contacted the Federation and have arranged for a referee to go to their club and give a lecture.

YUGAL are now training at two separate fields; the first graders are using Camperdown Out near Sydney University while the lower grades use Steele park, Tempe Both training nights are Wednesday and Friday at 6,00 p.m., and any players interested are invited to attend

ANDREW VASS, who has done so much to establish Marrickville Olympic on a firm tooting, has resigned as president of the club; his replacement is Dr Nicholas.

The Sutherland club is gradually carrying out improvements upon SEYMOUR SHAW PARK. This year the dressing rooms and shower facilities have been re-vamped to make them more confortable, while in a few weeks it is hoped that two shelters will be constructed on the sidelines for reserves and coaches to sit in out of the rain.

Yugal will play all their home matches at CONCORD OVAL this year, though for some Saturday games the field will be unavailable and they will have to seek another venue.

Arncliffe Scots have regained another former player in the shape of 19-year-old JOHN MUSCOVITS John was a junior with Arncliffe before moving to Marrickville Olympic where he proved himself to be a prolific goalscorer.

HECTOR MARTINEZ is trying to burst back onto the soccer scene after a year in the doldrums. In 1975-75 Hector was with Pan Hellenic, then

After several years of a de-athbed existence, the once proud and great club PRAGUE has been laid to rest. Last week the Yugal-Prague club changed its name back to plain "Yugal" meaning that there is now no trace of Prague left in Sydney Soccer.

Sutherland could well be without one of their talented youngsters, STEPHEN MEADES, for about four weeks. He dislocated his shoulder in the friendly match against St. George last week

MIKE McCANN, son of former NSW Federation president Peter McCann, has a business appointment for the next few years in Utrecht, Holland, and is turning out for the local reserve team.

NSW Protestant Churches Soccer secretary. ROY PEARSON, on the recreational staff at Sydney University, is also secretary of the Australian Universities Soccer Association.

Why not? Now that the former Canterbury-Marrickville and Helias Canterbury have become MARRICKVILLE OLYMPIC, there is a clash in name with the Second Division Marrickville club, cosched by Rex Foster. Marrickville could well consider a change of name to Canterbury, which surely would be in the interest of themselves and the game. If could well bring them a goodly supply of talented local juniors, which they will need in a year or two to rebuild the team.

ROGER BAMFORD, the former ROGER BAMFORD, the former bankstown coach and Canterbury striker, leaves shortly for a morth in England, the trip being both for business purposes and to attend his erster's wedding. He will be meeting up with Brian Green Also on the visiting list is Gordon Lee, the Evertom manager with whom he played in the Aston Villa reserve team. He will not miss dropping in on his old club at Villa Park Birmingham.

Two more on the injured list at Sutherland the other week were JOHNNY LAVIN, out with an Achilles tendon problem, and KEITH SCHUMANN, who has strained back muscles.

ARNOUIFFE SCOTS are determined to find a major sponsor for the dub this year They are one of the most progressive clubs in the Federation, although having only been in division one for two years now, and as is the case with nearly every club, money is scarce. Their progress has been almost fairy-tate like, with a squad of players coming mostly from the St. George area, and now reaching the semi-final of the Ampol Guo, their greatest achievement to date.

Auburn are at present triali-ing a former Arnollife Scots player ALAN PIGGOTT. Alan was formerly with St. George before going to Arnollife for several years.

The Sutherland club is still producing talented young players, for the first team. TONY BUSH an 15-year-old has forced his way into the first team aqued after coming up through the ranks of Miranda Mapples, the Inter district team and the Sharks' third grade side.

A 22-year-old striker STASE GEORGEFF has been signed by Western Suburbs from Newcastle Austral He recently spent three months with London Second Division club Orient, who last week knocked Chelsea out of the FA Cun.

Marrickville Olympic sup-porters last week made a pre-sentation of $550 to fullback Greg Brown, who wil' miss the season following severe injury in a motoring accident.

WESTS are still on the look-out for a physiotherapist. Contact club manager Mike Laing on 713 9672. Meanwhile Peter van Ryn remains out of the club pic-ture, and will concentrate on na-tional team duties only.

There is a strong chance that MARRICKVILLE OLYMPIC will have a 21-year-lease of Arlington Oval, allowing them full Saturday, Sunday and holiday use of the ground and the opportunity to carry out planned improvements. The scheme has been well received by Marrickville Council, and the arrangements could be completed this week.

SYDNEY OLYMPIC'S new blue-and white hooped jerseys show up well, but the orange numbers accompanying the "Patra" sponsorship on the back need to be redone to give greater contrast for visibility.

There can be no doubt that the record 6100 people at Canberra's National

One stunned onlooker was Canberra's version of "John Laws", Dean Banks, from the national capital's top rating radio station 2CC.

The first thing Dean said on his show at 9 a.m. Monday morning was that the Canberra Week celebrations had started in a great way, and that the highlight was Canberra City's opening game the day before He appealed to everyone whether they had seen a soccer match before or not to go along and back Canberra City on Sun

The League's two Sydney-based high-flyers, Easts Hakoah and Marconl should consolidate their positions at the top when they play at home on Sunday.

Marconi, after their great triumph in Bristiane, will meet a tough and composed Fitzroy in what is certain to be a dour struggle.

The crafty, experienced Fitzroy defence is unlikely to allow the freedom of the park to Marconi's speedy raiders.

Still, the Rasic-boys are in such devastationg form that they should be able to pierce the barncades especially if the Sharnc-Jankowich tandem can retain its poal touch.

Easts Hakosh, obviously back in form just at the right moment, appear to have an easy task—but they should be aware as a bedly mauled Lion can spring some unpleasant surprises.

but they should beware as a bedly mauled Lion can spring some unpleasant surprises. It's clear that the newly forged Hermiston-Bennett partnership will need time to settle down; however, even then the problem of a sterile attack remains. East's open, attacking style and olever use of the wings is certain to pay off again particularly if Stevenson, Barnes and Smith can organise things in the middle. A new look South Melbourne, completely redesigned by Dave Maclaren, will clash with Olympic in a friendly frathicide and, on last week's form, should romp home.

Newcomers Baxter. Wright and Hansen, an exuberant Lutton and a flight, well organised defence led by Hatzinanuel and Kalafatudis, form the backbone of a team which may at least fulfit all its overdue promises.

The same cannot be said about Olympic who are still struggling to find not just a team but also a style and look to be in danger of suffering their second defeat in a row.

Western Suburbs have a reu-nion with their former star Col Curran when they play host to Newcastle United — and should rub salt into the gaping wound with a wer.

Newcastle, on the other hand, are learning the facts of life about this tough; unsentimental League the hard way and could go on taking yet another lesson. At Hindmarsh, West Adelaide, full of ambitions for 1978, will be confronted by a briterly disappointed St. George keen to make amends for their defeat. Westad, with an abundance of stars in their ranks, have to find the right combination to become a real threat.

Brisbane City's job against Footscray won't be easy especially when you consider that the Melbourne side managed an incredibly precious and convincing win in Adelaide last Sunday.

City's perennial ailment of goal-shyness will have to be overcome before they can count on good results.

The immense team spirit of Canberra will help them through many a crisis and they will be much harder to beat at home than they were last year.

A major uptum for the books, only the evergreen Roger Romanowicz saved Adelaide Ciry, from an even heavier deteat. After the match, the bitterly disappointed Adeity fans pave vent to their feelings by jesting their team off their field where 90 minutes earlier they entered as pladiators. City revealed an alarming fact of floward penetration in their first services to Foolscray in a PSL fixture. Also missing was their fine conestive team play which characterised most of their appearances last year. The individual stills were still apparent, but the soft, imdifield approach cred out for the return of a dominant figure like Agenor Muniz. City new signing from local city Enteled Victoria, Danny Dance, was unluckly to receive an ankle injury, early in the match which forced bit of the first principles of their environments. Robert Mawre from Creatia and Dave Rigby from Moorolbark made promising debuts, but coach Edmund Kert has problems to alive before the class with Canberro City It was a brighter picture for Foolscray who at last fulfilled the promise of their custanding build our batters of last season. Nippy wingers John Nicolaides and Mendo Ristovski ware well supported by central striker Joe Picticane in forming a lively, threatening attack which kept Frank Lister and Co. It to out in an almost constant rear quard action. The midfield promptings of Picticane and the busy prefiting of Pali keaks well uncheaked by heir strangely passive Adolity counterparts. Even when newcomer Rippy replaced Metra things improved only ward jurially and by the time Marwer moved to the control the attack, the stuffing went out of the home side, leaving them floundering in the wake of their own earlier inaptitude.

Two bare points irgall Filtzrey zan be pleased about after an ordinary game against an equally average opponent. Fitzroy was too defensive and their midfielders failed to tink up with the strikers where Andrew Bozikas was left tall alone with his magic ball skitis. Fitzroy though having the better of the early exchanges, could not penetrate the tough, well organised. City defence where Wisehart in goal was performing near mizales. The young goalle blocked everything that came his way, richly deserving the generous applicates of the crowd. Boshane City ocach made a abook double-replacement in the second half, taking off Conner and Fathmell and all but handed the match to Fitzroy. To explor the sudden defensive weaknesses of the viberors Bogg switched dim Campbell. for the casual Microsvic and the move paid dividends. Campbell roused his team mates to a new effort and finally sealed the falls of the game. He intercepted a backpass from Lavelle, broke through on the right and lobbed the ball to the Urking Bozikas to lag it home. Twice Fitzroy hit the woodwork through Taylor and Cofe with Wisehart beaten and once Gaffney caved on the line thom a Buljevio shot. Wisehart was several times tested by his own defenders once a deflection from Lavelle, later a back header by Perry had be scrambled clear by the goalle its fair to say that but for him Brisbane City would have returned home north with a much heavier defeat.

Marconi gave Lions a lesson in the art of soccer playing in this game. The surprising fact about the debable was that Lions showed little or no appetite for the game neither whan they were still "in" the malch nor when they went behind free well known fact of Viers' still in using a ball must have stopped short of the Lions den and he was allowed unfirmled space to roam free and easy, using deatly penetrating balls to the three speedy soungsters by front. With the trelease Roaney and the effective Byrne complementing the fallatins vision. Lions were never in the hunt, if the first half hour was a fairly even after, the last hour belonged to Marconi, very clearly superior in all phases of the game. Mark Jankovics, beginning to fulfil the prophesis of Rale Rasic as a potential champion roamed around unmarked, shaking the Lions detences to pledes. Even fulfoach Cegnary turned himself into an attacker, moving upfield on the fanks and adding thrust to the Marconi attack as if they needed it. It will be a game better forgotten by Lions. Rasic would have learned very little from such was the catilizer of opposition. Marconi will be a well disciplined unit and even at this stage look a prospect.

NEW STARS MAY ADELAIDE LIFT WESTAD HIGH

"Watch Out For Westad" - this could well be the catchphrase for the 1978 Philips League season.

West Adelaide seem destined to improve dramatically on last year's middle list rainting. Wests, obviously mindful of last year's shortcomings, recruited quietly, almost unobrusvely, for the big challenge. New president Dr Bill Kyros and energetic new team manager George Kotsis knew full well that Wests were disadrantaged last season because of a lack of reserve strength. Together with ooach John Margaritis and former team manager, now secretary, dim Carapetis, they combed the plays market at focal, interstate and overseas levels. First of the focal signings was former fuede United Iphono Perer Tymczyszyn from USO Lion. The acquisition of the tell-blonde-haired utility player was anything but simple, however, because his work parmit had the research before he was allowed to remajor in Australia. Next came Uros Zivkovic, a superbly talented playmaker from the Eastern Districts Azzurtl club.

Zivkovic winner of the West and the formation of the state of the control of the state of the control of the state of the control of the control of the state of the control of the con waste may on training so that he would be at his peak for the PSL start.

Westad's next recruiting moves were made with startling rapidity.

After falling to convince John Kosmina that theirs would be a better team than Arsenal, Westad grabbed the Australian International's team-marke Vic Bozanic.

And if this match form can be taken as an accurate guide. Bozanic, who was bought from Polonia for $5000, could prove the bargan of the decade.

Westad unleashed their battary of new signings and prospective purchases on Enzoy and although they won only 1-0 there was no doubting their overall superiority.

Ex Derby County striker Eric Carruthers who arrived in Adelaide two days before that game scored the match-winner and showed some fine touches in the 45 minutes that he spent on the field Graham Norris, the former Western Suburbs striker whom Westerd signed from Western Suburbs via Hakoseh, also looked sharp in his one half appearance.

Other encouraging signs of resurgence come from the lively form of captain Peter Boyle who has obviously recovered from the virus which upset him last year and the keen understanding apparent between former Scottish Under-23 international Graham Honeyman and his lod tearmate Carruthers

With Ian McGreoor, Alex Zervas, John Batchelor and young George Koulrainos also on coach Margantis list, Westad's forecast hope of simply improving on last season's seventh placing could well prove to be

The genius of Clough

The "Clough miracle" — that's how experts in Britain refer to Not-tingham Forest's brilliant run in the first tingham Forest's brilliant run in the first division.

Brian Clough has managed to transform an average club and ordinary team into potential champlons.

During their 113 years Not fingham have won the Cup twice but never the League championship, now they have a commanding lead at the top.

What's the secret?

All players perform above their previously believed abilities they run non-stop and are fixed by boundless enthusiasm.

Some of the players Clough took to Nottingham were regarded as second rate Clough then went to work our them.

Ken Burns, during bis days with Birmingham, was cautioned or sent off almost monthly, now hardly commiss at loud.

Up front they have Peter White who two years, any was formed to the edsA to earn his soccer living, now he is the spinitual leader of the attack.

West German manager Helmut Schon had to watch the recent international against England on TV because he was confined to his bed with flu.

His star striker Klaus Fischer was also absent with sickness. Schwarzenbeck from Munich regained his place in the German team — but was a total failure at fullback, Beckenbauer's old posi-

Another blow to the Germans was the serious injury of their star midfielder Flohe. Schon now admits that less than three months before the World Cup, he is still looking for his team.

Hamburg's defender Kaltz, who was originally handpicked to fill Beckenbauer's position, is completely out of touch and didn't even play against England.

Fischer's possible deputy, Dieter Muller, has dropped out of calculations because of a cardiage operation while the two young wingers, Abramczik and Rummenigge, are poor finishers.

Many of the German newspapers are openly worried about the form of their national team.

"This side is several goals weaker than the one which won the Cup in 1974," said the influential Die Weit.

"Not to mention that this time we will not be playing at home..."

Brazil, preparing for the possibility of playing in wet and muddy conditions in Vina del Mar, are training-line special boots with aluminium breaking studs with auminum breaking studs Graeme Souriess, the former West Adelaide guest star, is the toast of Britain now. In Liverpool's 3-1 win over Manchester United he scored a brilliant goal, then he was the best man for Scotland against Bulgaria.

Hungary's preparations for the World Cup are demanding First of all, the champioriship will continue until April 22—with two matches a week, on Wednesdays and Saturdays Then the national side will play Czechoslovakia on April 15 (Budapest), England on May 24 (London) and two more friendlies in West Germany in May before jetting to Argentina on May 28

Reports from Budapest Indicate that Ferencearos coach Jeno Dalnoki may soon be replaced, following his team's disappointing results in the current campaign. It would come as no surprise if the next coach would be former star player Florian Albert.

Holland's World Cup prepara-tions are not proceeding too well; tions are not proceeding too well, last week they managed only a meagre 2-1 win against Israel in Tel Aviv And considering that Australia has also won there a few years ago

The new captain of the Argentine team is Passarells, replacing Carrascosa who has withdrawn from the squad.

The Sovietsky Sport of Moscow sharply attacked FIFA over its decision to disallow players for appearing at the Olympics once they have played in World Cup matches This, according to the newspaper, will embarrass many developing countries who havent got two top teams (Not to mention the USSR with would have fixed to field its top national side in Moscow in 1980

The number of teams and registered players jumped by 10 percent in Norway in 12 months; they now have 8000 teams in competitions

Scotland had great trouble in beating Bulgaria 2-1 in a friendly in Glasgow. The Bulgarians accred first, Scotland equalised from a penatly in the 41st minute and got the winner in the 83rd — from a suspiciously offside situation.

Sweden's first World Cup tune-up match was a failure, too, they lost 0-2 to the Spanish Malaga whose new coach is former Hungarian Jeno Kalmar.

Claudio Coutinho has already nerrowed his World Cup squad to 29 men from whom he will select his final 22. These are: Leao, Carlos, Raul, Toninho, Nelinho, Ze Maria, Luis Pereirs (doubtful), Amaral, Oscar, Rontinelli, Francisco Marinho, Edinho, Rodriguez, Neto, Odiriet, Cerezo, Battista, Rivelino, Dircou, Paulo Cesar, Gil, Tarciso, Reinaldo, Serginho, Roberto, Zico, Palihina, Mentosa, Lima.

Spain will leave for Buenos Aires on May 22 but on the way will play Uruguay on May 24 in Montevideo.

Notis Forest on the move

The North American Soccer League will have 24 teams this year - in six groups.

year — In SIX groups.
Rather confusingly, they have two "conferences"
(xones) with these groupings:
NATIONAL CONFERENCE
Eastern. Toronto MetrosCroatias, Rochester Lancers,
Cosmos, Washington Diplomats
Central: Minnesota Kicks,
Colorado Cariboos, Tulsa
Roughnecks, Dallas Tornado
Western. Vancouver
Whitecaps. Seattle Sounders,
Portland Timbers, Los Angeles
Azteos.

ztecs AMERICAN CONFERENCE: Eastern New England ramen, Philadelphia Fury, Tampa Bay Rowdies, Fort Lauderdale Strikers

Central: Detroit Express, Chicago Stings, Memphis Rouges, Houston Hurricane Western Oakland Stompers, San Jose Earthquakes, Caltiornia Surf, San Diego Sockers.
Although each team will play more often against others in its own gegraphical area, the NASL will still maintain its coast-to-coast system by playing numerous interlocking games in the same "conference"
Confusingly for European fans this means, for example, that Cosmos will play 22 games in its own "conference".

The majority of coaches are from R-tain but there are also quite a few Yugoslaws.

This is the current list.
